

February 2018

We at The Natural Health Co. are looking for a third year student or qualified person to work in our busy Devonport store.

This is a great opportunity to put your theory into practice and learn to think quickly on your feet helping with a range of health issues. You will have access to a large selection of practitioner and OTC supplements and our herbal dispensary.

We are looking for a Sunday staff member, with the likelihood that more weekday shifts will open up throughout the year. Health retail experience is not essential but preferred.

If you are interested please email tracy1811@gmail.com with your CV or call her on 027 576 7701.

We look forward to hearing from you!
