

Naturopath – Mt Eden

Short Summary

Use your excellent retail skills and be part of a dynamic values-based company selling natural health products, cosmetics, and organic food.

Commonsense Organics is a busy and thriving organics store in Mt Eden, Auckland. The in store Naturopath is responsible for ordering and retailing health products, providing advice for customers, and working in the store.

Job Description

The health and beauty section is an important and respected sector of the store. As the store Naturopath, you will:

- Provide outstanding customer service
- Have experience in a retail setting
- Support customers with information about products and nutrition
- Order health and beauty products and maintain supply
- Be a self-starter who is motivated to succeed
- Support the display and merchandising of goods
- Be part of a friendly and productive team of people, who care about what they do
- Contribute to a positive and supportive work environment

You will have a qualification in Naturopathy, Medical Herbalism or Nutrition, excellent customer service and retail skills, knowledge of organics and a passion for your area of expertise.

The role is three days (24 hours) per week, Monday, Friday and Sunday. This role would suit a new graduate looking to learn more about the industry, or an experienced Naturopath looking to supplement their clinic practise.

If you fit the above criteria, we want to hear from you!

Applications close 29th March 2019.

www.commonsenseorganics.co.nz