Fee Terms & Conditions:

- For all terms and conditions relating to fees, please see SPCNM Admissions and Enrolment Terms & Conditions and the 'Student Acknowledgement' (provided when you receive an 'offer of place' to study at SPCNM).
- Diploma of Holistic Nutrition and Bachelor of Natural applicants (only) will be requested to pay an enrolment application fee once their application documents have been processed and they are notified that they have been selected for an interview. Payment details will be provided. An interview will be arranged on receipt of payment.
- There is no application fee for the NZ Certificate in Study and Employment Pathways - Natural Medicine, or Certificate of Personal Interest courses.
- Course fees do not include textbooks and course related materials or equipment. Full-time students should allow approximately $600.00 to $800.00 per year for books and other course related expenses.
- Student Services Fees are set each year in consultation with the Student Council. Students also help to determine what the fees are used for. Fees have funded: external counselling via referral from our pastoral care team; health services for students via Paua Clinic; employment and careers information (including our Expo and Careers Day); subsidising a Rongoā Māori intensive; recreation and cultural activities (including social events and immersion days).

Refund Policy

- There will be no refunds provided for withdrawals from a course or programme after two weeks (14 calendar days) from the semester start date.
- Refunds will be provided for withdrawals from a course or programme in the first two weeks (14 calendar days) following the semester start date. There will be an administration fee for withdrawals, within this period, of 10% of course fees/Compulsory Student Services Fees.
- Students who withdraw from a course or programme before the semester start date, will be provided with a 100% refund of course fees/Compulsory Student Services Fees. Students must contact Enrolment & Student Progression or the Student Administration Manager as soon as possible if they have any concerns about their studies or if they are considering withdrawing. Places at SPCNM are limited and significant planning is undertaken prior to the beginning of each semester.
- A refund of the initial application fee will be provided for enrolled students who withdraw from the programme before the initial semester start date (100%) or with an administration fee of 10% for withdrawals from the Bachelor of Natural Medicine programme in the first two weeks (14 calendar days) following the initial semester start date.
- Students who change their mode of learning from online to on-campus, or vice versa, or who add an additional course (after 14 calendar days from the beginning of the semester), will be charged a $50.00 administration fee per course.
